MISSION STATEMENT OF MT. ST. JOSEPH ACADEMY

"Our mission is to provide a personal, Catholic school community in the heart of Vermont. Founded by the Sisters of St Joseph, Mount St. Joseph focuses on the education of the whole person by integrating spiritual development, academics, extra-curricular activities, and community service into everyday life. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, Mount St. Joseph students are self-confident and resolute. Our mission is to create a just world."

Letter from the Principal

Dear Mountie Graduating Class of 2015:

A famous author, Dr. Seuss, once said, "How did it get so late so soon? It's night before it's afternoon. December is here before it's June. My goodness how the time has flown. How did it get so late so soon?" I am sure that there are many of you graduates that feel it has gotten so late so soon. That is the reality of life, time has certainly "flown" from the time you entered Mount Saint Joseph Academy as freshman in the fall of 2011. Since then, each and every one of you has changed while the time has "flown". You have experienced, in multiple ways, all that MSJ has to offer. Your class is made up of athletes, academias, thespians, artists, musicians, authors, scientists, and more. This is what makes your class unique. Let's take a quick trip down memory lane.....

Remember that summer day when you first entered MSJ? Picture yourself as a freshman, excited, timid, shy even. Remember those first football games? Can you see yourself learning those cheers the cheerleaders shouted out? Remember the first time you stepped on Abatiell Field to join your team or the first cross country race you ran in? Think about the Fall Play that you were in. Remember the rush that comes with acting in Bagley Theater as a member of the Shoestring Theater Group? How the seasons flew by, on to basketball and the games played in McDonough gym. Remember that one special game, you know the one that will always stand out in your memory? Always remember why it stood out. Picture all the ordinary days, the days of hanging out on the third floor with the other freshman and sophomores, the lunches and dress down days and all the math and literature lessons you learned. Think about the laughs you had with friends, the sleepovers, the team dinners. Now think about the special days you had as a Mountie, the championship games you attended, the field trips you went on, the friendships you made, the smell of the fields during baseball season, the time you spent in the chapel reflecting on what is truly important, your faith. Think about all the moments spent here at The Mount and how they have impacted your life. Reflect on all the life lessons you have learned from your parents, your teachers, your coaches and your friends over the past four years. My hope is that you each feel truly blessed for the wonderful experience you had on 127 Convent Ave as a Mountie. I know I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to get to know each and every one of you and I look forward to seeing all your accomplishments in the future. The question remains, "How did it get so late so soon? . . . My goodness how the time has flown. How did it get so late so soon?". As they say, "time flies when you're having fun". And, my dear graduates, MSJ was certainly a time for fun, as well as a time for learning. Those lessons won't soon be forgotten. They come to serve as the branches in life, gently guiding you as time marches on.

Now, after four wonderful years, you are on your way into the world. You are armed with the many tools you obtained as a student at Mount Saint Joseph Academy. We, your MSJ family, are confident that you will go on to do great things as Mounties do. We will always be here for you in the future; once a Mountie, always a Mountie! We hope you will visit us often, we will welcome you with open arms. We wish you nothing but the best on all your future endeavors and always remember the times spent with us, carry those memories into your future. So, my friends, "You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. You're on your own, and you know what you know. And you are the guy who'll decide where to go. . . You're off to great places! Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting so get on your way!"

May God grant you all the best that life has to offer,

Mrs. Sarah M. Fortier

Class of 2015 Yearbook Dedication

Mrs. Sally Keefe has always brought a bright presence to the MSJ community, both inside and outside of the classroom. Mrs. Keefe inspires all of her students to do their best and praises them even when they fail. Mrs. Keefe's teaching style builds confidence. Many students have joined her art class and say to her "I can't draw" and her responses is always among the lines of "it's okay, you'll get better."

Mrs. Keefe has been working in the Fine Arts department of Mount St. Joseph Academy for 12 years. Mrs. Keefe received her bachelors degree from Castleton State College and received her masters at Rhode Island School of Design. Today, she shares her creativity with her students by teaching new drawing, painting, and sculpting methods. Mrs. Keefe is always honest and always pushes her students to challenge themselves.

Mrs. Keefe is very special to the Class of 2015. She has watched most of us grow in our artistic talents as well as outside of her art room. She understands the way each student creates their art and shows her appreciation by posting the best artwork from her students on the bulletin board in the lobby for all of MSJ to see. Each student always looks forward to Mrs. Keefe's art class and enters with a smile. Students can always count on her art class to brighten their day with Mrs. Keefe's smile and cheerful attitude.

Thank you, Mrs. Keefe.

Kyle Anagnos

"The best thing about the future is that it comes one day at a time." -Abraham Lincoln

When I first entered MSJ I had no idea what to expect. To my surprise attending MSJ turned out to be the best years of my life so far for which I am forever grateful for. I would like to take this time to thanks my parents, my brother, friends, teachers, and coaches, who have all helped mold me into the person that I am proud to be today. To wrap up some of my highschool memories; The 'Bees with BM, KT, ML, JW, D.C. with the boys, cake on the ceiling in D.C., Burlington with ML, the chairs in Spanish with BR and JW, "We do poems" with KE and OO, Skype freshman year, HFRU with JW, the Tremendous Trio with KB and ML, prom night with the crew, steaming up the Jeep with NO, riding the pine with KE, BS, KB, and ML, Pre-K buddies with SH and KT, countdowns with ED, "Murdad" with JW, getting threatened by SH, Haunted House with BM and JW, Art class with the gals, Lake Warriors with KB, ML, BM, trick or treating with RV, BM, AL, JW, and DG, Bowling with SH, SH, RV, JW, and BS.

Class Will - Dylan P: our random hellos in the hallways, Heather: my friendship, Guy: the "cake" in Spanish ;) and Ms. A, Bethany G and Laurie: Spanish Class, Baryn and Clay: the basketball team, Lorie (Laurie): the lunch table, Mr. Stevens: ambitious students to hackle you with questions, Ms. Fuller: SAT Vocab (have clemency), Mr. Audette: the legend of Night Hoops.

In ten years I will have earned a Masters Degree in Business Administration from the school I choose to attend and will be living out my vision of the American Dream with the love of my life and my family.

Kyle Ballard

"Life is tough, but it's a lot tougher if you're stupid." -John Wayne

In ten years I will be running Rotella Vineyards and be married to a beautiful brunette.

Hailey Bevacqua

"Don't live down to expectations. Go out there and do something remarkable." - Wendy Wasserstein

Memories: All our lunch table conversations..enough said.

I want to leave one thing, a mindset. A mindset never to quit.

In ten years I see myself living on my own, somewhere warm and being a social worker in a hospital.

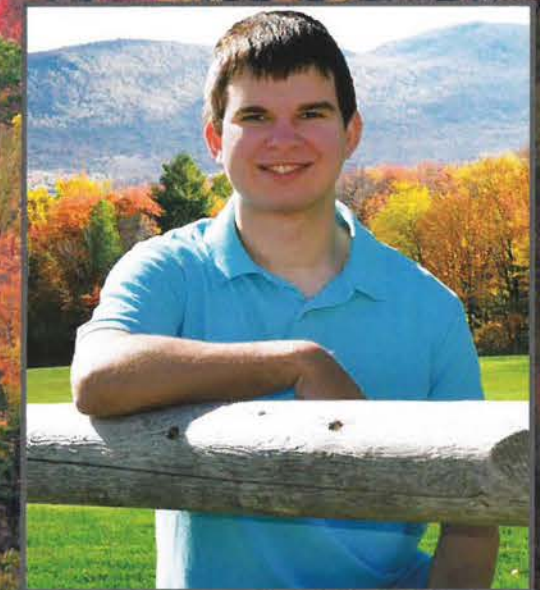

Eric DeBlasio

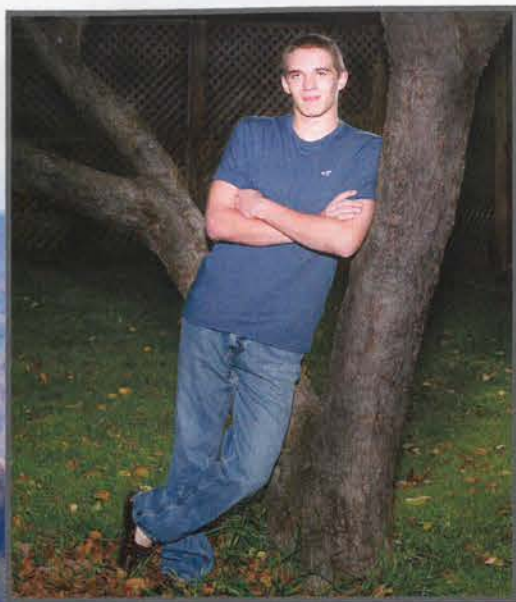

"We're just the new guys trying to make a name for ourselves." -Denny Hamlin

I would like to thank my parents for everything they have done for me throughout the years. Thanks for the great education at CKS and MSJ and for the many sacrifices to send me. Also, thank you for pushing me to do my best and try to achieve excellence. Thank you Adam for giving me some family competition. I would also like to thank all the teachers for everything they have done to prepare me for college. I would like to thank God for everything He has done for me. It has been a fun ride here at MSJ and I would like to wish all of my friends at MSJ the best and good luck as they continue their studies. Finally, I would like to wish my classmates the best of luck as they go off to college and prepare for the real world.

Shane- The "March Madness Tournament" pool, the football team, and the baseball team. Ben R.- Courtesy running. Barryn- The football team and the lunch table, all to yourself! Jonah- The baseball team. Chris- "Sup?" Guy- The scholar's bowl team. Randolph- A shirt and tie. Kaeleigh- Our first period study halls. Clay- A "hello" at lunch. Dylan- A handshake whenever I see you, no matter what is in our hands. Thomas- A slap when you least expect it. Coleman- The heart of the football team. Mr. Audette- Night Hoops. Mr. Stevens- "Kaeleigh and the boy(s)" oh, wait, I won't be there anymore! Mr. Merchand- A "boo", a "hiss", and some "AWFUL Algebra." Ms. Fuller- Seeing the deeper meaning when it is actually meant to be taken literal and vice versa. Mr. McDonough- The keys to MSJ.

I will have degrees in both Meteorology and Accounting with a high paying job and no student loans. I will be spending a lot of time with my family.

Kyle Diezel

"The sky has no limits.... neither do I.... I work hard, and do good, and I'm going to myself, I'm not going to let you restrict me." Usain Bolt

I would like to thank my parents, sister, friends, teachers, coaches, and all those who had my back and believed in me the last few years. Thank you all for helping me get to where I am and making me the person I am now. MSJ has taught me a lot of things over the last four years. I know over the last four years for me has been a challenge with many up and downs, but I am happy I managed to make it through it. I will miss seeing everyone I knew and met but will keep you all in my memories. To the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors enjoy the next few years because it will be the most memorable. To my fellow seniors I wish you all the best of luck and hope to see you guys sometime in the future.

I will leave the weight room to Ben, Shane and Jonah. I will leave the football team in the hands of the younger generation and wish them luck. I leave the basketball team in the hands of Barryn and Clay hoping you guys have a good season. I leave my basketball jersey to Clay. I will leave my track gear to whoever wants to run after I am gone (If anyone beats any of my school records I will buy them dinner). Whoever wants to follow in my footsteps is welcome to because I guarantee they will go far.

In ten years, I see myself helping athletes on the sports field or court as I live my dreams out some where along the eastern seaboard.

Megan Eaton

"Life is short, so do what makes you happy. Be with those who make you smile. Laugh as much as you breathe, and love as long as you live" -- Rachel Ann Nunes

Thank you to the class of 2015 for all the memories we made together. Thank you to Mrs. Fortier for being an awesome soccer coach, history teacher, principal, and role model. Thank you to my Mom and Dad for all the love and support, and sending me to MSJ. Jenna, I'll miss you so much next year, but I couldn't have imagined spending these last two years of high school with a better sister. I'll never forget the awkward pep rallies before walking down as a school to the bonfire to kick off Homecoming, the jokes about not having principal for two years, and all the sports memories I now carry with me. To my soccer and basketball teammates: You guys mean the world to me, and I can't wait to come back next year and see you guys bring home State Championships. Thank you to everyone who impacted my life at MSJ, I've truly become a better person thanks to you.

I leave Jenna- The car and the Eaton name. You better take care of both. Izzy & Bryn- I give you full permission to give my care package to Coach on our birthday instead of me. No need to mail it... OC- My green basketball shorts, THE deodorant, and countless hours of Friends. Monica- All my graphing calculator knowledge, and my Jenna Bee, take care of her please! Mr. Audette- Night Hoops.

In 10 years, I will have graduated college with a masters degree in Speech Language Pathology. I'd like to think I'll be married, living in Ohio, and starting a family by the age of 28, but who knows where life will take me.

Kevin Elliott

"Too often in life, something happens and we blame other people for us not being happy or satisfied or fulfilled. So the point is, we all have choices, and we make the choice to accept people or situations or to not accept situations." - Tom Brady

I don't really know what I am supposed to put here... LOL

I leave the football team to Jonah, Ben, Clay and Jack. I leave the weight room to Jonah and Ben cuz they are really the only ones who used it. I leave number 54 to Coleman Shum! I leave the lunch table to Mr. Shark cuz he's the only one left. I leave Jeff Green and Jared Sullinger to Chris Bills. I leave Brit Lit and being loud and obnoxious in the hallway and coke ICEEs to my bust buddy Guy Tedesco. I leave weekend turn ups and sliding to Shane, Ben, and Guy. I leave FIFA tournaments to Shane and MJ. I would also like to leave my Joy to Bethany Garrow so she stays happy like I always did.

I ten years I see myself graduated from college and in the state police force. I see myself probably being married, and if not, probably still living with my parents.

Devon Gilbert

"Far better it is to dare mighty things, to win glorious triumphs, even though checkered by failure, than to take rank with those poor spirits who neither enjoy much nor suffer much, because they live in the gray twilight that knows neither victory nor defeat." -Theodore Roosevelt

These past four years I have met some great people that I will never forget. You have all impacted my life in ways you can't even imagine. As well, I have my parents to thank for making me the woman I am today. They have been by my side my whole life and have always been there to support me. They have provided me with the wisdom and the tools for success. BM, you have become a sister to me and I don't know what high school would have been like without you. You have been by my side since the first day of freshman year. I won't forget times on the boating, wing night, crazy car rides, great escape day, HC, our attempts at taking decent pictures, ditching track, volunteering, and the million other memories we have made together miffin! KT, we will always have the king of the forest, co-cheer captains, bae-noculars and car rides to cheer practice. We can share the boy with the dragon tattoo, maybe. SH, you are the nicest person I have ever met, you have always been there for me and I will miss your hugs. Also, I will miss our late night talks at BM's house. JL, you have been one of my best friends throughout high school even though you can be rude you have always been there and brought a smile to my face. You can't shew me away forever sweet cakes. JW, unfortunately I will not forget about your stroma problem, your sass, FaceTime dates, car rides, bio talk, sledding, two for twenty at the bees and good engineering skills. Try to stay classy in college honey dew, only have half a twisted tea. KA, you have always been nice to me and I wish you the best of luck in college and to be careful around JW, he does not always have his plug and likes to stroma. Senior girls, I will miss secret santa, our project help group and ap art. As well, these past four years I have been blessed to be a part of the cheer team. I have had some of the best experiences on this team. I will never forget taking names at competitions, the crazy car rides, themed practices and the joy my teammates brought to me. I will always remember from cheer that "trying is for losers". Even though we are all going our separate ways, the memories with all of you will be with me forever. I wish the class of 2015 the best of luck and I hope to see some of you in the future.

Tree and Olivia: the cheer team, keep it alive and victorious. I will miss the two of you.

Liv: my wings at team dinner and the booty.

Tree: being cherubic, earthworms, bae-noculars, and my sideline spot.

Gabby: all the meatballs you desire.

Lorie: the sass and the power to clap when it's time to run.

Mr. Audette: Night Hoops and tuna.

In ten years I hope to be a successful and married woman working as a physician assistant in cardiology. I plan to live wherever my life takes me and I hope I have begun to travel the world.

Sarah Harvey

"Trust yourself and your feelings. Don't conform to anything you're not; that's what's wrong with people now a days. Your perspective is your reality. What you think is right and the way you feel are all that matters. Don't let anyone influence that. Listen to your head and your heart." -Ryan Harvey

Thank you to my mother for your forgiving, understanding, and loving nature. For heart-to-heart conversations late at night, always holding my hand in the hospital, my favorite meals on my birthday, and lessons on the importance of inner beauty. Dad, thank you for our time spent together in the woods or at the shooting range, for buying me sugary cereal, Swedish Fish, and Koolaid when Mom won't, for driving me to endless sports games, and for being someone I can always come to for love and support in difficult times. Ryan, although you have been in the Middle East or Germany for my high school years, thank you for always finding time to talk with me, for teaching me how to love myself, to be confident and patient, to be brave, and to enjoy life. Abby, thank you for being my friend, for teaching me how to be different from everyone else, and how to see the world with my future in mind. Izzy, thank you for always letting me borrow your clothes, for comforting hugs, and for showing me that life must not be taken too seriously. Brendan, thank you for our timeless friendship and for giving me a new perspective on so many things. Lauren and Theresa, thank you for two more sisters. You are both sweet, intelligent, caring and you have so much ahead of you. Granny and Grandpa, thank you for vent sessions, root beer, Smarties, and proof reading my essays late at night. Grandma and Grandpa, thank you for teaching me to cook with love, the importance of family, and how to truly appreciate what God has given us. Guy and Sophia, thank you for the best birthday cards, and for fun Tuesday nights at Gram's. Reilly, thank you for teaching me how to appreciate life and its little beauties. Maison and Jeffrey thank you for teaching me how to see the world through a child's eyes. Meg and Claire, thank you for late nights, long talks, and for keeping all my secrets. Ty, thank you for 4 years of lessons and laughter, for a best friend, for giving me hope and support, for showing me how to appreciate life, loved ones, and myself, but most of all, for teaching me how to love.

I leave: Izzy- All the Rascals in my pocket. My car, fully equipped with apple scented air fresheners. Our favorite songs to sing together. Wilbur. Hugs, wisdom, encouragement, and love. Theresa- Apple Crisp WITHOUT walnuts, and someone to talk to anytime at all. Gaetanino- Trips to Tyler's football games. Chapstick, limes and Jolly Ranchers. Bryn- All of the shark gummies I owe you. Mike Audette- Puff The Magic Dragon. Doe Urine. "Hair". Your personal copy of "Night Hoops". Coach Fortier and the soccer team- "Cat paws". The joke that Keith can never hear. Love and laughs on the field.

In ten years I hope to have graduated college and graduate school, have been in the Peace Core, be a successful nurse practioner, perhaps a wife and mother, but most importantly happy, healthy, and surrounded by those I love most.

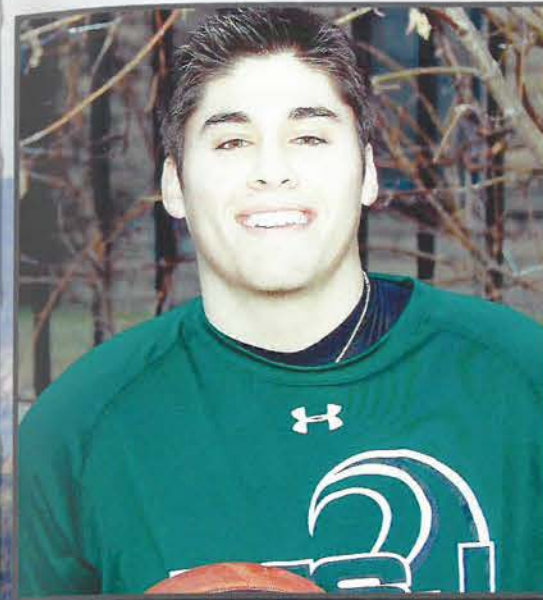

Sally Hogan

"Two things define you. Your patience when you have nothing, and your attitude when you have everything." ~ Imam Ali

I want to give a big Thank You to all of my family and friends, without having you by my side over the last four years I don't think I would have made it through with my sanity still intact. There have been some ups and downs, but overall I am so glad that I was able to have my high school education at MSJ. The teachers here are genuine and truly care about their students. I'm going to miss my teammates, especially those on the basketball court, who have shared their blood, sweat and tears with me. Most of all I am going to miss my fellow seniors as we head out to college; most have been with me since the glorious CKS days, but all of my classmates hold a special place in my heart. All of my memories and experiences here have made me a better person and brought me closer to my friends; adventures to the MSJ roof in the middle of the night and winter, movie dates, sleepovers, and those late night vent-sessions. I hope to take these memories with me and continue to grow into a better person and to never forget the people I love and the important things in life.

I leave 8th period study hall to Jonah, metaphors to Mackenzie, pushing people to Izzy, Student of the Month status to Dylan and Jenna (what's left of the original three), Outing Club to Guy and Ben and Lorrie, NHS "Treasurer" to Shane, knee problems to Gabby, Early Workouts to Bethany G., bottle drives to OC (since you bring in the most bottles), Basketball to Monica, Outfield to Theresa, Senior Decorations and theater signs to Shannon, the Yearbook and Newspaper to Dylan (please join publications people!), Swedish Fish and Sour Patch Kids to Jonah and Gabby (learn to share guys), and HFCU meetings to Bethany G. and Mackenzie. I guess Mr. Audette can have slaw and pizza...and Night Hoops.

In ten years I hope to find myself teaching secondary level art and english literature, possibly with a family of my own.

Henry Kantorski

"Without Goals & Motivation, Life Is Pointless. Life's A Lesson, Don't Go Through Life, GROW Through Life. Live For Something & Don't Stop Until You Get It. There's Going To Be Haters, Doubters & Non-Believers, But Then There Will Be You, Proving Them Wrong." - Henry Kantorski IV

In ten years I will be the owner of my own business and be working everyday to support my family.

Andrew Lindell

"Wishes don't need to be made out loud to others. Make them inside, and then make them come true for you by trying... Make a reason for it" - Andrew Lindell

Trust me, it's all worth it no matter what bruh.

I wish all of my broken pencil pieces to be distributed to all other students.

In ten years, I hope to be in space.

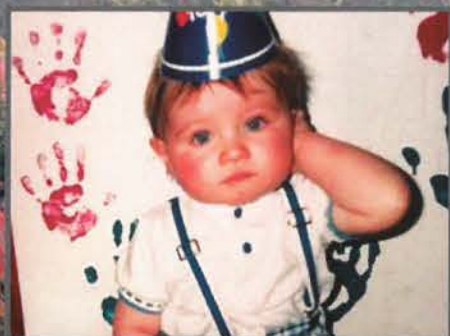

Joseph Loveland

"Super Nintendo, Sega Genesis When I was dead broke, man I couldn't picture this" - Notorious BIG

I don't feel like pointing out specific people because I don't want to leave anyone out, so thank you everyone that have been in my high school life and that have made it as great as it was. There are way too many memories to just single out a few, so thank you to everyone that have been a part of the memories. MSJ Football 2014 was the best time of my life, so thank you to my team and my coaches. Thank you to all the teachers that have gotten me this far. Thank you Mom, Dad, and James for all that you have done. I'm continuing to another chapter in my life, and I cannot thank everyone enough, so again, thank you everyone, I love you all.

To Shane, my beauty To Guy, Grandmaster Rash To Coach Hall, the football team, it's yours now. You've earned it.

In ten years, I will be successful. Very successful.

Nathaniel O'Shea

"There may be people who have more talent than you, but there is no excuse for anyone to work harder than you do- and I believe that" ~ Derek Jeter

To my parents, teachers, coaches, friends, critics, and everyone else, Thank You.

Shaner- I leave you the baseball team, even if it is not mine to give, and the flow. Guy- I leave you any worldly possessions of mine you wish to have, along with my aux cord, all the pears you can eat, and the power to slide. Ben- I leave you all my MSJ possessions. Mr. Audette- I leave you the nickname Big Cat.

In Ten Years... I will be graduated from college with a young family, and doing who knows what for a job.

Bethany Miglorie

"Ashes and diamonds, foe and friend, we are all equal in the end" - Pink Floyd

I came to MSJ hardly knowing anyone and I was not sure what to expect. I made my closest friends here and met the best teachers. All of the good memories I had throughout high school was because of the love and support I had from my friends and also Mrs. Keefe & Mrs. Fortier. I am so thankful for the people I met at MSJ. Here are some of my good times in a nutshell: joy rides in Green Bean, KT falling asleep in the snowbank and slipping on ice in the middle of the road, wing night with DG, cheese nip/ pancake topping, scary movies on Halloween, visits to the roof of MSJ, half apps at the 'Bees, becoming BFFs with the Friendly's waitress, stealing Friendly's balloons, animal noises in Friendly's, all of the fun times in D.C.- especially with my roomies KT & SH and hanging out in KA and JW's room, roadtrips to the "Slaughterhouse", getting chased by the Little Lambs van, and all moments with JW, late night rapping session for an APUSH video with DG and KT ("Can you help me with the shower?"), APUSH Adventures, tanning on DG's boat, "The Pede" with DG, the failure to take good pictures & shopping trips to Crossgates with DG, sleepovers with friends (especially DG & KT), Secret Santa with the girls, KT smacking me in the face, KA saving me in West Side, SH always putting a smile on my face, the time DG came to school freshmen year wearing navy blue shorts, a VS Pink 3/4 sleeve polo & sneakers, any memories I'm leaving out or forgetting- cheers to those.

Kenzie: rides home, Gabby: meatballs, Jenna: the good side & a dimple, Bryn & Izzy: a creepy smile in the hallway, Clur: the chronic "sass" face, OC: hugs, Dylan: late night talks & J.Cole, Lorie: daily hugs, Izzy: the triple chin selfie, Mr. Audette: Night Hoops, Miss Fuller: pomegranate, a laugh, a good AP group (but not as awesome as the Fantastic Four), Mrs. Keefe: a heater to warm up the AP Art Annex

In ten years I will be wherever life takes me. Free as a bird.

Spencer Potter

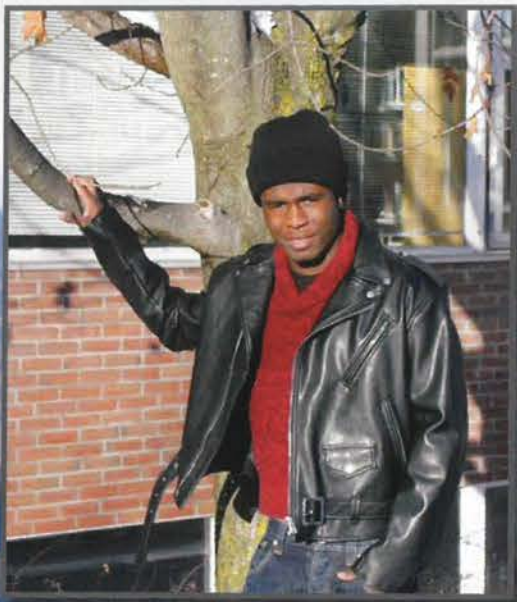

"I like my (video game) weapons like I like my music, heavy, and metal"
-Mordekaiser, League of Legends

Four years it's been, it definitely feels longer than that. It's wierd to think that I'm actually going to college and going on to make my own. When we were kids it seemed like such a long time in the future but now it's here. Sadly I can't say I'll miss more than a few people here, but I'm grateful for the friends I have made.

To my brother Dylan I leave my parking spot. To Mrs. Audette I leave the theatre because I dont trust anyone else. To Jack Whitiker I leave one brofist. To Thomas I leave joking around in Art class.

If I had to guess where I would be in ten years I would have to guess that I would be living in an apartment by myself someplace warm and having a job at a game company like Blizzard. (Hopefully)

"Remember, the journey of a thousand miles starts with the first step." Rafiki (Lion King 1 1/2)
I want to thank everyone who has helped me get to where I am today, especially my Mom, Mackenzie, Maya, and Gee and Gumpy. The friendships that I already had grew stronger and I made some new great ones as well. There are so many great memories that happened in my four years at MSJ. I'll never forget all the joy rides that green bean has gone through, our trip to the "slaughterhouse" and our trip to the chip with BM and KA. Riding around in the volvo with JOJO and DG. I will always remember how comfy a snowbanks can be, and how thrilling it is to make snow angels in the road. Roof top adventures with SH and BM, and driving in Fancy to go exploring in the Kervic Home like a ninja with TT and OT. Half apps and Bee's with my boys KA and JW I will miss so much next year. Leaving friendly's balloons in Beth car just so they attack her while driving. Spilling the darkest secrets of MSJ to a very nice waitress at friendly's. Making the best APUSH music video about George Washington with DG and BM..."How do you work the shower?" And knowing that the best place to spend Halloween is at the Harvey household. Secret Santa with my girls (SH, ME, SH, DG, RV, BM, HB). Having the best roommates for DC, and finding out Maudette is truly terrified of loose human hair. lols. Playing mind games on Shirley with (MT), its the only way of survival. And obviously being the life of Hoco with a little help. Cheers to the Freakin' weekend and all other memories I have left out, #sorry.

Lorie, I leave you conditioning at practice because I know how much you love that. Jenna, I leave you second period art classes Mr. Audette, I leave you Night Hoops, and hair Guy, I leave to you the power of thots and the thot like status Izzy, I leave you all the cranberry juice at my house when you come over Tree and Liv, I leave you both our journey around the Kervic Home, and the cheer team...Take care of Tracy for me and sing to her every so often Thomas, I leave you sassy comments, my phone that fell in the toilet, and my driver's ed homework...yeah, you're welcome Bethany G., Kenzie and Kait, I leave you both HFCUVT Monday night meetings and the free food...YUM Kenzie, wow there is so much I could leave to you, like the other half of what will now be your own room,our "long" walks to school, Maya's homework that no one can understand, the wrapping of meat, our aimless drives to nowhere belting out our favorite ballads, my front of the room dance spot, or even our shared fear of clowns. So I mean I guess you can have all of that. Lastly I really want to leave you to ability to not be afraid to go out of your comfort zone and try new things, because those are the best things that you will ever experience. and dark meat on the turkey.

Ten years? I couldn't tell you where I'd be in ten year...I couldn't even tell you where I'd be tomorrow

"Dude, Keep you're head up, face GOD, move forward." - Unknown

I want to thank MSJ for accepting me, for all the people in the three years that helped and understood me. I'm very happy to have lived here for three years and to have met a lot of friends. I pray for all I have, I bless those who really care about me; teachers and classmates. Here I'll show my appreciation for the Rice family. I'm very thankful for this family, I'll never forget them. This is my second home. I found my best friend, a brother -Jacob, and Anita and Patrick are just like my mom and dad. I learned a lot from them over these three years, always helping me, always thinking more than me to make my life better. I'm so blessed to have them. And I'm so appreciative of the Philip family. I want to thank my mom and dad, thanks for their effort and support of me. I love you all, thank you very much to all the people who helped and cared for me. God bless you, and I will pray for you all.

I leave the secret box to Joe whitaker.

In ten years I want to realize my own dream and be helpful to society. My name will be written in human history. Rather than the pursuit of everyday happiness, I'll seek every day meaningfulness. I never will give up hope.

Solange Reyna Viala

"Si tu veux tu peux, si tu peux tu dois"
 "If you want you can and if you can you must."

I would like to thank MSJ, my host family and all my classmates for making my senior year such an amazing experience. Although I often missed my family and the sun in Haiti, those people never failed to make me feel welcomed and loved. For that I am extremely thankful.

In ten years I will be a very successful orthodontist in Haiti with a productive and busy clinic. I will hopefully be planning my wedding which will be a big event and the happiest day of my life until the birth of my children a few years later.

Joshua Wasilewski

"A life is not important except in the impact it has on other lives." - Jackie Robinson

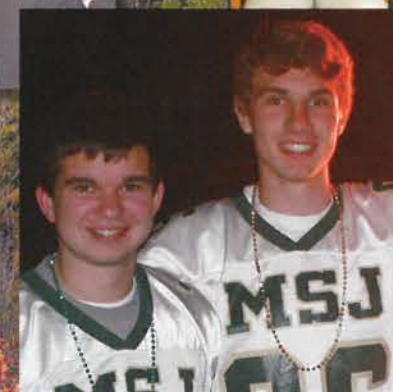

When I walked into MSJ over three years ago, I did not know what to expect out of high school. I knew I would learn, but I did not realize that I would make memories for life. I met some of the most important people during my stay at MSJ and I am so blessed that I got to experience all these great moments with my buddies. Without the undivided support that I received from my teachers and peers, I would not be the individual I am today. With such great guidance from everyone around me, and unparalleled reinforcement, it has inspired to pursue my dreams and aspire to be the best possible individual that I can be. The amount of memories that I made at MSJ are uncountable, but I will try to sum up all these wonderful times here anyway. These times include: Skyping with each other during freshman year, exploring the wonderful usages of kale with Ms. Dickinson, G-slicing with H-Dog, partying during the summer, knocking my chair down the stairs during the music concert (AKA "Chair Solo"), traveling and playing with the baseball team, especially to Centennial Field, and of course the fun times we had with the "ghost." I'm grateful for all the times that I had with KA, whether it included "HFRU?!!?", "Merdad," and the rest of our secret code, as well as throwing countless items across the classroom, getting fudge cake stuck on the ceiling in D.C., our late night study sessions, and the other precious memories made each day. I will always remember the times with my bestie Miggy, which include our long hallway hugs, half price apps with KA and KT, wall twerking, car rides, singing J Cole lyrics, AP History Sundays, calling you "stanky," and the best times in D.C. Devon, thanks for the good times as well. I will always remember "catching a wild Gilbert," speaking to you in biology terms, especially stroma, trick-or-treating with you, KA, AL, BM, and RV, road trips, screaming to you "let's go!!!!!!!" Facetime sessions, and your marvellous ability to count to potato/butterfly. I wish everyone the best of luck in life, that you all accomplish what you set out to do, and that one day our paths will cross again. #Day1.

Mr. Audette: Night Hoops.
 Mr. Van Liew: The Camping Trip.
 Ms. Fuller: SAT Vocabulary, including the words "clemency" and "non-sequitur."
 Mr. Stevens: My days in the library as well as my constant Common App Questions.
 Mr. Merchand: "When does the twelve o'clock train leave?"
 Ben Decota, Jonah, and Shane: the baseball team.
 Guy Tedesco: "Supaaa Hottt Boyyy."
 Bethany Garrow: Fruit Girl.
 Lorie: I leave you the title of "Queen Sass Master" as well as the the copyright to the word "Nice."
 Thomas Tracy: I leave you the library and all the study halls that come with it.

In ten years, I will have graduated from my dream school with a master's degree in Civil Engineering. I will be happily married to the love of my life and we will reside in the Empire State.

International Students

MSJ and its community and families have hosted four students from China and two students from Haiti for the 2014-2015 school year. Louie, Rain, and Sharon, who are all from China, participated in Cross Country this year, and Reyna and Lorie, from Haiti, are both cheerleaders and part of Drama. Louie also was a member of the Men's Basketball team and Lorie plays softball. This is Louie, Rain, Sharon, and Reyna's first year at MSJ and Lorie has been attending since her Sophomore year and Robert has been with us for three years. All have been wonderful additions to the MSJ community and we hope that Louie, Rain, Sharon, and Lorie all continue their high school careers at the Mount next year!

MSJ's Shoestring Theater Presents

"The Santaland Diaries" By David Sedaris

Letter from the Editor

Dear MSJ Community,

Throughout my High School career at MSJ, I have had so many great experiences and made memories with my friends, peers, and the faculty and staff. These people who have surrounded me and helped me to grow into the person that I am today have become my second family; my chosen family. Whether it be on or off the court, in or out of the classroom, these people have supported me through thick and thin. It is hard to imagine going forward after my senior year without these wonderful people by my side. However, it is because of their influence over the past four-plus years that I know I am prepared to jump into the void that is the real world. Because these people are so important in my life I wanted to make sure that, as the editor of our yearbook, the yearbook reflected the community quality that MSJ has in its rich traditions. I wanted to portray this by having our theme stay close to home to make the overall feel of the book more personal. Our Vermont theme is showcased in our picturesque nature backgrounds that capture our state's beautiful seasons. Pictures of MSJ itself are also used as backgrounds, along with students, faculty and staff participating in various activities throughout the year.

These are meant to frame the many pictures that we have of our academic and sports programs, extracurricular activities, and community service mentioned in our mission statement, and, most importantly, the fun and memories shared amongst the friends that are the MSJ family and community. These memories are what define us and stay with us beyond high school; these moments of happiness give us a reason to strive for something more and something better. The memories and fond moments captured in the pages of this yearbook are what I would like to take with me, and what I would like to leave behind for others, so that they too can see why the people, community, and family of MSJ are special.

Sincerely,
Sally L. Hogan

2014-2015 WORLD BEAT[®]

THE YEAR THROUGH YOUR EYES.

THIS YEAR

YOUR TOP PICKS

Topics included in World Beat were selected by students participating in a national survey.

WATCH IT ALL COME ALIVE

Augmented reality (AR) brings World Beat to life on your iPhone®, iPad® and Android devices.

STEP 1:

If Jostens produces your yearbook, use the ReplayIt® app to launch the videos. Go to the ReplayIt "More" menu and touch "Augmented Reality." If you haven't downloaded ReplayIt, visit the App Store. If Jostens doesn't produce your yearbook, download the Aurasma® app from the App Store.

STEP 2:

Open app, search for JostensWorldBeat, and select "Follow."

STEP 3:

Look for the  symbol and hold your device over the adjacent headline in each section to trigger the videos. Watch and enjoy!
